

Enforced Code Enforcement Issues

- High grass and weeds (12” or greater)
- Junked vehicles
- Improper disposal of junk or solid waste throughout property
- Junked items left at the road
- Keeping of chickens or livestock in city limits
- Pools lacking a fence
- Dilapidated homes that pose a physical hazard (e.g., collapsed roof, broken windows)
- Yard sales held more than two times in one year
- Business operated out of a home (does not include accounting, baking, or other businesses operated by a single person who is the owner of the home)
- Temporary signs left in the right-of-way
 - Real estate and campaign signs are permitted
 - Business owners are allowed temporary signs on their property. Permitted no more than 2 signs for no more than 45 days in a 90-day period.
- Tractor trailers parked in residential districts
- Unpermitted buildings (e.g., accessory structures, in-ground pools, etc.)